PROFILE

I'm a website developer that mostly develops in Wordpress and CS-Cart. I've also built a number of custom developments which include CRMs, Interactive Portals and Comprehensive Math Engines. I've also had experience editing, shooting and producing videos. I love video games and movies and I keep up to date with all the new movies and video games. I also play basketball and I follow the NBA, NFL and AFL. I also love swimming and surfing and try to do both as much as I can. I love writing and keep an online blog over on my blogging website. I love making effects tests which you can see on my Youtube page.
